OUR WILL AND PLEASURE is that the following new paragraph shall be inserted in the regulations attached to Our said Warrant of the 30th August, 1893:—

5A. S. & H. HARRIS'S MILITARY WATERPROOF POUCH BLACKING.

This Blacking is much used and highly esteemed for cleaning Pouches, Bags, Straps, &c., as it is perfectly Waterproof. Any article after having had a few applications and exposed to the heaviest rains will not be affected so much as even to soil the hands or gloves. The article after being exposed to wet and dirt for many hours, requires only to be sponged or wiped clean, rubbed dry with a soft cloth, and the beauty of the article will be restored without any fresh application of the Blacking, or more than one minute's attention; after five or six applications it will be found that the Blacking will only have to be used occasionally, as a mere rub (daily) with a cloth or old silk handkerchief will renew the polish for some time. This Blacking will be found equally useful for Trunks, or any other black leather article.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6d. a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.

APPENDIX TO ARMY ORDER 22.

MEMORANDUM FOR INVENTORS.War Office, April 1, 1894.

In consequence of the numerous claims for compensation for loss of time, and for expenses incurred by private individuals, in working out inventions of various kinds, as well as for rewards in consequence of the use of such inventions, the Secretary of State for War considers it necessary to make known the following regulations:—

1. By Section 27 of the "Patents, Designs, and Trade Marks Act, 1883," it is enacted as follows:—
"A patent shall have to all intents the like effect as against Her Majesty the Queen, her heirs and successors, as it has against a subject."
"But the officers or authorities administering any department of the service of the Crown may, by themselves, their agents, contractors, or others, at any time after the application, use the invention for the service of the Crown on terms to be before or after the use thereof agreed on, with the approval of the Treasury, between those officers or authorities and the patentee, or, in default of such agreement, on such terms as may be settled by the Treasury, after hearing all parties interested."
2. Persons who desire to submit any invention for consideration should do so by letter addressed to the Under Secretary of State for War. The letter should state the nature of the invention, and whether patented or not: if patented, it should quote number and date of patent. It should also state whether the person who offers it for consideration desires to make any claim for remuneration in connection with it. In the absence of such a statement, it will be assumed that no remuneration is expected.
3. Expenses or loss of time incurred before or after the submission of an invention will give no claim unless authority for such expenses has been previously given by letter signed by one of the Under Secretaries of State or the Director of Artillery, and the liability will be strictly confined to the limits of expenditure authorised in such letter.
4. No claim for reward for an invention will be held to be established, unless the invention has been adopted into the service.
5. All claims for remuneration will be carefully considered; but any award which may be made will only be payable to the claimant when approved by the Treasury, and money is available from funds voted by Parliament for such purposes.
6. The above rules do not apply to inventions patented by such Government employes as are required to obtain official permission before taking out a patent, with regard to whom special regulations are in force.

TO MILITARY MEN & OTHERS

S. & H. HARRIS'S MILITARY WATERPROOF POUCH BLACKING.

This Blacking is much used and highly esteemed for cleaning Pouches, Bags, Straps, &c., as it is perfect Waterproof. Any article after having had a few applications and exposed to the heaviest rains will not be affected so much as even to soil the hands or gloves. The article after being exposed to wet and dirt for many hours, requires only to be sponged or wiped clean, rubbed dry with a soft cloth, and the beauty of the article will be restored without any fresh application of the Blacking, or more than one minute's attention; after five or six applications it will be found that the Blacking will only have to be used occasionally, as a mere rub (daily) with a cloth or old silk handkerchief will renew the polish for some time. This Blacking will be found equally useful for Trunks, or any other black leather article.

Sold by all Saddlers, Grocers, and Oilmen.

Subscriptions and donations in support of the Charity will be thankfully received by Messrs. Cox & Co., Charing Cross, London, S.W.; by the Secretary, C. R. Low, Esq., to whom crossed cheques and Postal Orders on the Charing Cross Post Office should be made payable; or by the Matron, Miss K. Bartlett, at the Home at Hampstead.

The Home was constructed and is equipped for 200 girls, but some beds are now necessarily empty from want of funds.

The need of such an institution is apparent from the fact that there are on an average four candidates brought forward at each election to every one admitted.

The Committee earnestly appeal to a generous public to aid them in the support of the Charity. They also ask for the co-operation in the good work of every Regiment and Corps.

A contribution of but 6*d.* a year from each Non-commissioned Officer and Man throughout the Service would provide for the support of a child from every Regiment.

The Home is open to visitors daily between 10 and 5, except on Saturdays and Sundays.

The Committee invite the inspection of all friends of the Soldier.
